IN ATTENDANCE	Chairperson	P. Tilley
	Councillor	E. Müller
	Town Clerk	M. Blackmore
	Recreation Director	G. Gosse
	Enforcement Officer	S. Berger
	Recording Secretary	J. Reid

GARBAGE/RECYCLE

CONTAINERS

Quotes were presented in the amount of $2,666.86 for 13 sets of garbage and recycle containers, with delivery in 3-4 weeks.

TIDY TOWNS

Information presented re the Tidy Town Competition for 2007.

RECOMMENDATION: That we participate in the Tidy Towns Competition for 2007 at a cost of $200.00. It was also suggested that we request our town be visited in August if at all possible.

LIGHTING THE FALLS

It was brought to Chairperson Tilley's attention that in order to present a cost estimate for the lighting of the falls a design would need to be drawn up. Garry Gosse will contact Trac Consulting for any ideas they may have re design. Cr. Müller suggested that we use all natural colours for the lighting.

ENTRANCES

The entrances to Clarendville were once again discussed. It was decided that a letter requesting cleanup will be sent to businesses on Manitoba Drive when spring breaks.

COMMUNITY GARDEN

Information re community garden competition will be included in our next newsletter. Cr. Müller will be designing slate rocks for the winners.

NEWSLETTER

Our next newsletter is scheduled to go out in April.

SANTA CLAUS PARADE Chairperson Tilley and Cr. Müller met with the Lions Club re the revised route and the quality of the Santa Claus Parade. The main concern was that the numbers were down compared with previous years. Discussion took place as to how this could be improved. Encouraging businesses and residents to participate was suggested.

NEXT MEETING Next meeting will be held on March 28, 2007

ADJOURNMENT Meeting adjourned at 1:10 p.m.

Respectively submitted

Paul Tilley, Chairperson
